MRS. ARBUCKLE AP-

FOR ACCUSED ACTOR

SAYS ONLY ONE SIDE OF STORY
HAS BEEN TOLD—OTHER SIDE IN COURT

M. D. TRACY

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—An appeal for fairness to her husband was the first word given out by Minta Durfee, wife of Roscoe Arbuckle, when she arrived in San Francisco early today.

She came from New York to aid her husband who is in jail here charged with the death of Virginia Rappe, actress.

"Only one side of this story has been told," she said. "And I know that the people are waiting until the other side comes out in proper, orderly fashion in court."

"I have only one request to make of all the fairminded people. I simply ask them to be fair to Mr. Arbuckle. I know and his friends know, that he is innocent."

Mrs. Arbuckle arrived here shortly before 7 a. m. today. She had been met at Sacramento by attorneys for Arbuckle who refused to permit her to add anything further to her appeal for fairness.

DE VALERA AGREES TO PEACE MEETING
WITHOUT ANY TIES

IRISH LEADER'S REPLY VIEWED
AS BACKDOWN ON HIS DE-FIANT STAND TOWARD GOVERNMENT

London, Sept. 17.—Developments came fast in the Irish situation today. First was Prime Minister Lloyd George's flat reply to Eamonn DeValera's telegram, stating that the government would not enter into any parley with Irish delegates so long as they demanded to be considered as representatives of an independent sovereign nation. This message sent hope for Irish peace slipping down into the depths.

But an hour later that hope again was soaring, for immediately upon receipt of Mr. Lloyd George's firm dictum, Mr. DeValera sent a reply to the prime minister in which he declared that the telegram he sent to him Friday was intended as an acceptance of a conference without any ties, as Mr. Lloyd George has insisted.

Renewal of Parley Bid Seen
"I have already accepted your invitation in the exact words you quote from your letter of Sept. 7," said Mr. DeValera's latest message.

This is believed in official circles to mean that the invitation to the Irish delegates to attend a conference will be renewed and hope runs high that with Mr. DeValera now down from his position of absolute defiance of the government, a means to bring about the peace in Ireland so much desired by the people of both islands will be found.

How soon the conference will take place is a matter of doubt, for it was announced today that Mr. Lloyd George is suffering from a chill and septic absorption and that he must not attend any but the most vitally important business for several days. He may not be able to attend a meeting for more than a week.

(By United Press)

Dublin, Sept. 19.—Sinn Fein's reply to the latest note from Lloyd George will probably be sent to the British premier at Gallicho this evening, it was announced today after a meeting of the Dail Eireann cabinet.

Must Withdraw Recognition Claim

Dublin, Sept. 19.—Faced with a choice between withdrawal from their insistence upon recognition as a sovereign state or abandon the conference upon which the hope for peace in Ireland rests, the Sinn Fein cabinet met with President DeValera today.

Ireland, hoping for peace, and facing a conference despite the technical difficulty anxiously awaited the decision.

Lloyd George's latest note received yesterday in which he explicitly insists DeValera must withdraw his claim for recognition of Ireland as a sovereign state or forfeit the right to the conference, added little to the advance of the Irish situation except to further clarify the issue.

DeValera Sends New Note

Dublin, Sept. 19.—President DeValera today sent a new note to Lloyd George asking whether the British premier in proposing an Irish peace conference is demanding an Irish surrender, or calling for a free and unprejudiced conference.

Washington, Sept. 19.—"Fresh from the people" the senatorial vanguard arrived today for the reconvening of congress on Wednesday determined to put the tax revision bill through the senate without delay.

According to present plans the house will not settle down to work until October 3, taking three days' recess meanwhile, and the majority of congressmen are not expected back until the latter part of the week.

Senators and the congressmen say that universal sentiment in their states and districts is for prompt settlement of the tax question. Members from industrial centers have been showering insistent demands for the enactment of the tariff bill.

Republican senators generally regard the work of the senate finance committee in revising the tax bill as well done and with few exceptions are ready to get behind the measure.

On the other hand democrats are prepared for a determined fight on the bill.

STATE FLOUR MILL BEGINS OPERATIONS

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Sept. 19.—The new state flour test mill in Minneapolis was put in operation today.

It is the first state owned mill of its kind in the country. Governor Preus and members of the legislature will attend a ceremony later in the week at which the mill will be formally opened. The mill will test grain for farmers. The finished product will be sold to the state board of control for use in state institutions.

Wants Unrestricted Arbuckle Booze Parties

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 19.—Citing the Arbuckle case as an indication of the ineffectiveness of prohibition enforcement, George D. Beason, president of the light wine and beer league of America, today called for enactment of the dry amendment in a manner that will permit a "reasonable personal pleasure." Beason said the Arbuckle case merely showed that national morals can not be controlled by legislation.

DE VALERA AGREES TO PEACE MEETING WITHOUT ANY TIES

IRISH LEADER'S REPLY VIEWED AS BACKDOWN ON HIS DEFIANT STAND TOWARD GOVERNMENT

London, Sept. 17.—Developments came fast in the Irish situation today. First was Prime Minister Lloyd George's flat reply to Eamonn DeValera's telegram, stating that the government would not enter into any parley with Irish delegates so long as they demanded to be considered as representatives of an independent sovereign nation. This message sent hope for Irish peace slipping down into the depths.

But an hour later that hope again was soaring, for immediately upon receipt of Mr. Lloyd George's firm dictum, Mr. DeValera sent a reply to the prime minister in which he declared that the telegram he sent to him Friday was intended as an acceptance of a conference without any ties, as Mr. Lloyd George has insisted.

Renewal of Parley Bid Seen

"I have already accepted your invitation in the exact words you quote from your letter of Sept. 7," said Mr. DeValera's latest message.

This is believed in official circles to mean that the invitation to the Irish delegates to attend a conference will be renewed and hope runs high that with Mr. DeValera now down from his position of absolute defiance of the government, a means to bring about the peace in Ireland as much desired by the people of both islands will be found.

How soon the conference will take place is a matter of doubt, for it was announced today that Mr. Lloyd George is suffering from a chill and septic absorption and that he must not attend any but the most vitally important business for several days. He may not be able to attend a meeting for more than a week.

(By United Press)

Dublin, Sept. 19.—Sinn Fein's reply to the latest note from Lloyd George will probably be sent to the British premier at Garloch this evening, it was announced today after a meeting of the Dail Eireann cabinet.

Must Withdraw Recognition Claim

Dublin, Sept. 19.—Faced with a choice between withdrawal from their insistence upon recognition as a sovereign state or abandon the conference upon which the hope for peace in Ireland rests, the Sinn Fein cabinet met with President DeValera today.

Ireland, hoping for peace, and facing a conference despite the technical difficulty anxiously awaited the decision.

Lloyd George's latest note received yesterday in which he explicitly insists DeValera must withdraw his claim for recognition of Ireland as a sovereign state or forfeit the right to the conference, added little to the advance of the Irish situation except to further clarify the issue.

DeValera Sends New Note

Dublin, Sept. 19.—President DeValera today sent a new note to Lloyd George asking whether the British premier in proposing an Irish peace conference is demanding an Irish surrender, or calling for a free and unprejudiced conference.

THE CRIMSON STRONG

(By United Press.) Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 17.—Line problems are the only football troubles faced by Harvard as the Crimson gets ready for the biggest season of years.

Head Coach Bob Fisher is frank in saying that much of the success of the Crimson team depends on the development of good linemen to replace the heavy forwards graduated last year.

With Capt. Kane at the end and Folbert available, Fisher has the foundation for a good line, but the prospects are none too bright, as little is known of the other candidates.

The backfield will not occasion much worry, as Owen, Fitts and Buell are back. Owen and Fitts proved themselves last year and Buell gave great promise in the few times he had a chance to show.

The Harvard schedule is the most ambitious of years. The Crimson will have practically no loading Saturdays between the opening double-header on Sept. 24, and the finale with Yale on Nov. 19.

Harvard had a very successful season last year finishing with a clean slate in nine games. The 14-14 tie with Princeton was the closest thing of a defeat, while the 9-0 victory over Yale finished the season with a blaze of glory.

The 1921 schedule follows: Middlebury and Boston University, Sept. 24; Holy Cross, Oct. 1; Indiana, Oct. 8; Georgia, Oct. 15; Penn State, Oct. 22; Centre, Oct. 29; Princeton, Nov. 5; Brown, Nov. 12; Yale, Nov. 19, at New Haven.

U. S. SENATE TO LOSE ITS "CLOCK"

By FRASER EDWARDS, (United Press Staff Correspondent.) Washington, Sept. 17.—Senators have become uneasy over the prospect of losing their "clock", Senator Carroll Smalley Page of Vermont.

The Patriarch of the Upper House has announced that he will quit public life when his term expires in March, 1923. He will then be 80 years of age. The duty of keeping the Senate on time will fall to some younger senators.

Since his election in 1908, Page has been the "official" timepiece of the Senate. If he failed to appear in the Senate as the hands of the clock over the Vice President's chair pointed to exactly one minute of noon, senators thought the "official" clock was wrong.

Senator Page at 78 is sturdy and vigorous, rated as a millionaire, and wise enough to have most satisfactorily administered one of the highest offices within the gift of the people of Vermont. His genius for punctuality is solely responsible, he says. Great, great grandfathers Page surveyed and appropriately named Hyde Park, the little Vermont village that "Calf Skin" Page, as he is known to hide users the world over, was to put on the map as the home of the largest raw skin factory in the world. On his twelfth birthday, Page went to work in the tanning factory as an apprentice. Punctually on his twenty-first anniversary, he bought out the establishment and has continued to run it on schedule time ever since.

He did not procrastinate about getting into public life. He was elected to the Vermont legislature as soon as he attained the eligible age and elevated to the State Senate upon reaching the minimum constitutional age limit. Election as governor, state bank examiner and senator followed with the Page promptness.

The Difference. The young hate work, but it is the last pride, the last joy of the aged that they are able to do it.—Atchison Globe.

MRS. BEN ARMSTRONG RECORDING SECRETARY

Elected to Position in the Musical Club to Succeed Mrs. M. B. Scherich, Resigned

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN IS ON

Membership Ticket in Musical Club Also Entitled Holder to Membership in Study Club

At a meeting of the Musical club board on Friday afternoon, at the Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. Ben Armstrong was elected recording secretary, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. M. B. Scherich.

The president-elect, Mrs. J. A. Thabes outlined plans for the year's work which were received with enthusiasm. She is planning a greatly increased membership. Each year, the women of Brainerd are realizing more and more, that the Musical club membership ticket is the "biggest bargain in town", as one of our leading business men put it. Last year, besides the regular monthly programs, it included a recital by the popular soprano, Myrna Sharlow, and one by Isadore Berger, who will be remembered by all devotees of the violin. This year there are to be three equally high grade artists' recitals.

Some of the board members feel that the price of the membership ticket must be raised if the present high standard of entertainments is to be kept up. But the majority feel that the club is doing a civic service to the community by keeping the price within the reach of all who love music or who wish to cultivate a taste for the best this art affords. Brainerd has a reputation for musical appreciation among artists, for which this club is responsible and which it naturally desires to maintain. Such a reputation is also a civic asset, as men like to live where their families are afforded cultural opportunities. If by increasing the membership, therefore, it is possible to keep the ticket at the present low price, it will be better for all concerned.

The limit has been removed from the membership, and all are invited to join. It should not be necessary to canvass the old members. They should all telephone the new chairman of the membership committee Mrs. J. L. Frederick and ask for a new ticket. Women who have recently moved to Brainerd, or who have but recently realized what they have missed by not belonging to this popular club, should also send in their names to Mrs. Frederick.

The ticket also entitles the holder to membership in the Study club. Mrs. Thabes is anxious to have this club take up the study of art the coming year, and the chairman, Mrs. A. C. Weber, is heartily cooperating in this plan. They hope to secure a series of art lectures dealing with art in the home.

The opening meeting of the Musical club is on the second Saturday in October which this year, falls on the eighth. The place of meeting will be the same as last year—the attractive new Elks' hall.

"COLD STEEL" AT NEW PARK THEATRE

To Be Presented Benefit of American Legion Tuesday Matinee and Night

DANCE ON FRIDAY EVENING

To Be Given at Elks Hall, Witham's Orchestra Furnishing the Music

The local post of the American Legion is filling the amusement bill two nights this week and the members of the committees on arrangements expect that the public will patronize the amusements provided.

The first event consists in the presentation of "Cold Steel" on Tuesday at the New Park theatre, matinee and night. The name of the picture suggests action and those who see it are promised that they will get what the title suggests.

And now for the second event! This is arranged for Friday night. It takes the form of a dance to be given at Elks' hall with Witham's orchestra furnishing the music as Oscar Risberg, a member of that musical aggregation, beats time on the drums.

These initial events lead to the culminating event when the local post of the legion entertains delegates and visitors from the posts of the legion, from the Sixth district, Minnesota on Sunday and Monday, September 25 and 26. Many ex-soldiers are expected in the city on those dates and the local committee desires to show them a good time while realizing that this can be made possible only by the co-operation of the citizens of Brainerd who are invited to attend the showing of "Cold Steel" Tuesday evening and the dance, Friday evening, and to assist the committee in entertaining the visitors.

YALE HAS HOPES

(By United Press)
New Haven, Conn., Sept. 16.—Yale has hopes this fall to erase the painful memory of the 1920 football season when the Elks fell down before Boston College, Princeton and Harvard.

Tad Jones, who left his business interests in Seattle last year in the attempt to bring Yale out of the rut, is back again in charge of the squad. He has been devoting his attention to the gridiron since the close of last season when his team was mauled by Harvard.

Yale says openly, that too much is not expected of the team this year, that Jones is laying the foundation of a system that may not begin to show results for another year or two.

Prospects are none too bright for a championship team or for one that will defeat Princeton or Harvard, as both rivals of the "Big Three" have a much brighter outlook.

If Jones is able to fill Captain Callahan's place on the line and discover some good material, the Blue ought to have a fairly successful season, as the schedule is none too hard.

The game with the Military Academy, which will mark the first trip of the Cadets away from the Plains for a game other than the Navy, is the mid-season feature of the schedule which includes:

Bates, Sept. 24; Vermont, Oct. 1; North Carolina, Oct. 8; Williams, Oct. 15; Army, Oct. 22; Brown, Oct. 29; Maryland, Nov. 5; Princeton, Nov. 12; Harvard, Nov. 19.

Remarkable Prehistoric Caves.

Tunnels and passages, measuring about twenty miles in length, and cut in the solid chalk 90 feet below the surface, are to be found in the famous prehistoric caves at Chislehurst, Kent, England.

VAIST EUROPEAN HOLDINGS, VALUED AT $200,000,000, FIGURE IN TRANSFER

Paris, Sept. 15.—Negotiations have been completed in Paris whereby the vast estates of Archduke Frederick of Austria and his son, Archduke Albrecht—estimated to be worth more than $200,000,000—were taken over by an American syndicate, which includes Charles H. Sabin, J. Leonard Replogie, Frank A. Munsey, Thomas J. Fielder and other prominent American businessmen.

Samuel Untermyer, New York attorney, represented the syndicate in the negotiations which have been in progress for some time, and Archduke Albrecht took part in behalf of himself, his father, his wife, Isabel, and his six sisters. Dr. Wilhelm Rosenberg of Vienna and Dr. Aurel Egly of Budapest were counsel for the Hapsburgs.

The transaction concerns the vast land and industrial holdings of the Hapsburgs, distributed throughout Austria, Czechoslovakia, Jugoslavia, Poland, Rumania and Italy. They include the great steel works and mines in Teschen, which are partly in Czechoslovakia and partly in Poland, and numerous other industries, including the dairies which formerly furnished most of the Vienna supply of milk and butter, sugar plantations, factories, apartment houses, palaces and other private properties in Vienna, castles in various parts of the continent, about 1,000,000 acres of agricultural and forest lands scattered over several countries.

MRS. BEN ARMSTRONG RECORDING SECRETARY

Elected to Position in the Musical Club to Succeed Mrs. M. B. Scherich, Resigned

MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN IS ON

Membership Ticket in Musical Club Also Entitled Holder to Membership in Study Club

At a meeting of the Musical club board on Friday afternoon, at the Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. Ben Armstrong was elected recording secretary, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. M. B. Scherich.

The president-elect, Mrs. J. A. Thabes outlined plans for the year's work which were received with enthusiasm. She is planning a greatly increased membership. Each year, the women of Brainerd are realizing more and more, that the Musical club membership ticket is the "biggest bargain in town", as one of our leading business men put it. Last year, besides the regular monthly programs, it included a recital by the popular soprano, Myrna Scharlow, and one by Isadore Berger, who will be remembered by all devotees of the violin. This year there are to be three equally high grade artists' recitals.

Some of the board members feel that the price of the membership ticket must be raised if the present high standard of entertainments is to be kept up. But the majority feel that the club is doing a civic service to the community by keeping the price within the reach of all who love music or who wish to cultivate a taste for the best this art affords. Brainerd has a reputation for musical appreciation among artists, for which this club is responsible and which it naturally desires to maintain. Such a reputation is also a civic asset, as men like to live where their families are afforded cultural opportunities. If by increasing the membership, therefore, it is possible to keep the ticket at the present low price, it will be better for all concerned.

A SMALL TOWN SUNDAY

Wasn't Sunday a wonderful day? The sun was so bright, the sky so blue, the air so pure and tangy, it was a joy just to be alive!

Most everybody had their kodaks out. Groups posed on sunny corners, the boys tugging consciously at coat lapels, the girls fluffing their hair and giving their hats a more becoming tilt. And speaking of hats, their bright colors seemed to vie with the colors of the turning leaves! The streets glowed like gardens with the Fall display of millinery.

And did you ever see so many cars out? The traffic on certain streets rivaled that of a metropolis! Minnesota's ten thousand lakes must all have been visited Sunday, if the fine weather was general. After a week of sullen clouds and more or less steady rain, the sunshine was most welcome.

Lacking other means of locomotion Shank's mare is not to be despised, and with an ever faithful dog, this mode of travel is most pleasing. A stroll through the woods at any time is enjoyable, but at this season of the year, beauty lies at every turn of the road.

The fallen leaves gleam like enamel against the still green grass, and the dusty leaves that remain on the trees look tired and ready to drop at the slightest breeze. Some of the milkweed pods have burst already, releasing fluffy pompoms of white, tipped with little flat brown seeds. How fascinating it is to watch these airy aigrettes float carelessly through the air, apparently aimless, but no doubt directed by Mother Nature.

The pungent odor of the smoke from burning poplar wood brings thoughts of supper, whose approaching hour is confirmed by the appetizing smell of coffee, as the outskirts of the town are reached.

What could be nicer than a table set before the fireplace, with a steaming coffee pot upon the hearth! And then the good old briar pipe is filled, and as the fire dies to glowing embers, friendly voices join in singing well-remembered songs. Friends, Home, Fireside! That's what a small town Sunday means.

TARIFF RETALIATION

A pamphlet of 79 pages has just been issued by the United States Tariff Commission, which is an introduction to a more voluminous report which the commission is preparing upon the subject of tariff policies of various nations.

Appearing at a time when free trade advocates and importers are raising a hue and cry that the protective policy in the United States, such as advocated by the Republican party, will carry the nations of the world in a trade war by way of tariff retaliation this report is of special interest.

The sum and substance of the report is that instead of the United States starting a world-wide tariff war, other nations have for years been discriminating against American imports in their colonies. The report shows that both England and France, the largest colonial powers in the world, are given tremendous tariff preferences in their colonies, and in addition, Great Britain is given tariff preferences by her four self-governing dominions—South Africa, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

Preferential tariffs throughout the world operating against the United States in its effort to increase its foreign commerce, have been in operation for a number of years. In some countries American goods are discriminated against not only by means of a tariff, but, as in Canada for example, the postage rate on American periodicals was raised in 1906 to four times what it had been, and at the same time the rate on British periodicals was reduced to one-fourth of the previous rate. This was done with the avowed purpose of reducing the American and increasing the British advertising circulation in Canada, so that the Canadian would become the purchaser of British goods, to the exclusion of American products.

WAR MEMORIAL

A special election will be held in Little Falls on Tuesday, Sept. 20, for the purpose of voting upon an ordinance authorizing the purchasing of a number of city lots, for the sum of $11,800, for a "Public Memorial Park," to be dedicated to the heroes of the World war. And the Transcript pertinently says: "The boys who went across did not count the sacrifice they were making. Can we afford to refuse them a memorial park? Vote 'Yes' next Tuesday."

The people of Brainerd have shown their patriotism in many ways, upon many occasions, and yet the feeling is quite general in the city that a suitable war memorial has been too long delayed. A couple of years or so ago the matter came up in the Chamber of Commerce and a committee was appointed and various suggestions were made, but nothing was done, and the project "died a-born-in." In the meanwhile nearly every town in the country either has a war memorial or is planning to have one, expressing their thankfulness to the men who were responsible for the victory, many of whom have paid dearly for that victory.

If nothing else is done, we might at least change the name of Gregory park to "Memorial Park" and dedicate it to the brave boys whose names are written on Liberty's tablets of sacrifice. The time is certainly ripe for action of some kind.

FOREST FIRE MENACE

Gov. Preus declares that legislation must be enacted to contribute greater safety to Minnesota's north woods settlers and to minimize the tremendous annual fire loss. He seems to be strongly of the opinion that a mounted constabulary, under state supervision, would help materially in preventing and fighting forest fires. In an address to the State Forestry board the governor asserted that one-tenth the amount spent to call out the National Guard would have prevented this year's fire drainage, and he also called attention to the fact that townships in Northern Minnesota now pay considerable more to prevent forest fires than is paid by the state.

Consolidation of government purchasing, so that departments cannot bid against each other on the market, has been recommended by Director Dawes of the Budget Bureau who also submitted a plan for a Purchasing Board and a Liquidation Board, the latter for the disposition of surplus property.

Down at Sauk Rapids a few days ago the village constable failed to doff his hat when the funeral of a soldier killed in action passed through the streets, and was promptly fired by the village council, at the request of a delegation from the American Legion.

According to building trade publications, the building industry is showing very material improvement. While this has been so gradual as not to be noticeable from week to week, taken over a period of months it is plainly discernable.

Some important changes, involving reduction of the army to a basis of 150,000 enlisted men, and redistribution of troops throughout the United States, have been ordered by the general staff with the approval of Secretary Weeks.

The I. W. W., at a district convention held in Fargo last Thursday, proposed a four-hour day for all workers. That is entirely too many working hours—for the I. W. W. members.

Cathedral of Mud and Wood.

Of the world's cathedrals, probably the most curious is that which crowns a hill in Uganda. In appearance it resembles nothing so much as a mountain of grass, although on closer inspection one is able to see that mud and wood have been extensively employed. The structure can accommodate 4,000 persons.

Foreign Customs.

In Sweden a physician cannot sue for his fee, while in Belgium a solicitor is in a similar position. By Chinese law, not only the doctor, but also the priest, the fortune-teller and clairvoyant are without legal remedy. All these debts are, however, looked upon as "debts of honor," and payment is rarely evaded.

Wanted to Know Papa's Status.

Little Freddy at the breakfast table, after having tucked away one piece of cake, turned to his father and said, "May I take another piece of cake, papa?" Father, with years of training to his credit, answered, "You'll have to ask mamma about that, Freddie." Whereupon sonny piped up, "Haven't you anything to say at all, papa?"

RAINS AFFECT TRUNK HIGHWAYS

Minnesota trunk highways show the effects of recent rains, especially on dirt surface sections, according to the weekly road condition bulletin issued by the state highway department.

Gravel surfaced sections continue in good condition generally and maintenance superintendents report that a few days of dry weather will enable the patrolmen to restore normal standards over the system.

Sportsmen traveling by automobile to western and north central districts are advised to go by way of St. Cloud, continuing on through Sauk Center and Glenwood for western points and through Little Falls, and Staples for points further north.

The highway department bulletin on roads in the vicinity of Brainerd states:

AMUSEMENTS

Realistic Scenes in "The Greatest Love"

When Ellis Island disgorges its hundreds of emigrants at the Battery entrance to New York City, there is always a crowd of never-jaded New Yorkers curiously watching the foreign, fantastically garbed people from strange lands. In "The Greatest Love," which is to be shown at the Lyceum theatre today and Tuesday, the audience has an opportunity to see not only this picturesque scene, but are also given generous glimpses of the surroundings of the emigrants on board ship, whirling away the time with song and dance.

These pictures were taken on board one of the large transatlantic liners and the emigrants which the audience see, stolidly watching the camera man take the necessary shots, act so naturally simply because they are not acting at all, with the exception, of course, of the two little players, Bobbie Connelly and Dot Williams.

Vera Gordon, the noted portrayal of "mother" in "Humoresque," has the starring role in "The Greatest Love," which was made under the direction of Henry Kolker. Other prominent players in the cast are Hugh Huntley, Sally Cruise, Donald Hall and Bertram Marburgh.

There is to be a special "Mother's Matinee" Tuesday at 2:15.

Remove Grease Before Lacquering.

It is possible to protect polished metal surfaces by applying several coats of cold lacquer or celluloid varnish. The lacquer should be applied with a brass camel's hair brush, after the metal has been highly polished. There must be no trace of grease on the brass or other metal when it is lacquered.

Quick Aid Prevents Fire.

It is well to keep a small fire-extinguisher convenient to the kitchen as a first aid to possible fire. These extinguishers are of great value when the fire has first started, but are useless after it has made headway. Just as with a first-aid kit, their value lies in their being at your service at a moment's notice.

The rainbow is caused by the rays of the sun passing through drops of water and being separated by these drops into the primary colors. A similar effect can be obtained by placing a triangular piece of glass before the eyes in the sunlight.

Where the Fish Swam.

There are rich fishing banks of huge extent around Iceland, but the greatest are around Newfoundland, and are so rich that fishing vessels congregate there from America and France, as well as Great Britain.

There are fine banks all along the Greenland coast, and plenty of fish on them. But here trawling is impossible, for the icebergs have covered the bottom with enormous boulders.

A Two-Fisted Job

FOR many years the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been perfecting an organization with the sole purpose of giving the consuming public a maximum of service at a minimum of cost.

To do this, four large refineries have been built and equipped; 3,700 bulk stations have been placed at strategic points throughout the 11 states served; more than 1,300 service stations have been located at convenient points so that Standard Oil Company (Indiana) products may be obtained every few miles in the country and every few blocks in the city.

Fleets of tank wagons and motor trucks are always in service ready to deliver Red Crown Gasoline, Perfection Kerosene and other Standard Oil products to consumers, wherever they may live.

In organizing this vast net-work of service, those responsible for the management of the Company have had two major objects in view; first to reduce the cost of manufacturing, marketing and distributing to the lowest point possible; second, to make prices which would be fair to the consuming public.

While mindful of the rights and privileges of its competitors, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes that its first duty is to the consuming public.

During the present unsettled conditions in the petroleum industry, this Company has reduced the selling price of its goods as rapidly as sound management would permit, and it proposes to continue this practice.

This policy conforms to the established practice of the Company of letting service take care of volume, and volume take care of profits and return to the 20,621 stockholders, not one of whom owns as much as 10 per cent of the capital stock.

A SMALL TOWN SUNDAY

Wasn't Sunday a wonderful day? The sun was so bright, the sky so blue, the air so pure and tangy, it was a joy just to be alive!

Most everybody had their kodaks out. Groups posed on sunny corners, the boys tugging consciously at coat lapels, the girls fluffing their hair and giving their hats a more becoming tilt. And speaking of hats, their bright colors seemed to vie with the colors of the turning leaves! The streets glowed like gardens with the fall display of millinery.

And did you ever see so many cars out? The traffic on certain streets rivaled that of a metropolis! Minnesota's ten thousand lakes must all have been visited Sunday, if the fine weather was general. After a week of sullen clouds and more or less steady rain, the sunshine was most welcome.

Lacking other means of locomotion Shank's mare is not to be despised, and with an ever faithful dog, this mode of travel is most pleasing. A stroll through the woods at any time is enjoyable, but at this season of the year, beauty lies at every turn of the road.

The fallen leaves gleam like enamel against the still green grass, and the dusty leaves that remain on the trees look tired and ready to drop at the slightest breeze. Some of the milkweed pods have burst already, releasing fluffy pompons of white, tipped with little flat brown seeds. How fascinating it is to watch these airy aigrettes float carelessly through the air, apparently aimless, but no doubt directed by Mother Nature.

The pungent odor of the smoke from burning poplar wood brings thoughts of supper, whose approaching hour is confirmed by the appetizing smell of coffee, as the outskirts of the town are reached.

What could be nicer than a table set before the fireplace, with a steaming coffee pot upon the hearth! And then the good old briar pipe is filled, and as the fire dies to glowing embers, friendly voices join in singing well-remembered songs. Friends! Home, Fireside! That's what a small town Sunday means.

TARIFF RETALIATION

A pamphlet of 79 pages has just been issued by the United States Tariff Commission, which is an introduction to a more voluminous report which the commission is preparing upon the subject of tariff policies of various nations.

Appearing at a time when free trade advocates and importers are raising a hue and cry that the protective policy in the United States, such as advocated by the Republican party, will carry the nations of the world in a trade war by way of tariff retaliation this report is of special interest.

The sum and substance of the report is that instead of the United States starting a world-wide tariff war, other nations have for years been discriminating against American imports in their colonies. The report shows that both England and France, the largest colonial powers in the world, are given tremendous tariff preferences in their colonies, and in addition, Great Britain is given tariff preferences by her four self-governing dominions—South Africa, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

Preferential tariffs throughout the world operating against the United States in its effort to increase its foreign commerce, have been in operation for a number of years. In some countries American goods are discriminated against not only by means of a tariff, but, as in Canada for example, the postage rate on American periodicals was raised in 1906 to four times what it had been, and at the same time the rate on British periodicals was reduced to one-fourth of the previous rate. This was done with the avowed purpose of reducing the American and increasing the British advertising circulation in Canada, so that the Canadian would become the purchaser of British goods, to the exclusion of American products.

WAR MEMORIAL

A special election will be held in Little Falls on Tuesday, Sept. 20, for the purpose of voting upon an ordinance authorizing the purchasing of a number of city lots, for the sum of $11,800, for a "Public Memorial Park," to be dedicated to the heroes of the World War. And the Transcript pertinently says: "The boys who went across did not count the sacrifice they were making. Can we afford to refuse them a memorial park? Vote 'Yes' next Tuesday."

The people of Brainerd have shown their patriotism in many ways, upon many occasions, and yet the feeling is quite general in the city that a suitable war memorial has been too long delayed. A couple of years or so ago the matter came up in the Chamber of Commerce and a committee was appointed and various suggestions were made, but nothing was done, and the project "died a-borning." In the meanwhile nearly every town in the country either has a war memorial or is planning to have one, expressing their thankfulness to the men who were responsible for the victory, many of whom have paid dearly for that victory.

If nothing else is done, we might at least change the name of Gregory park to "Memorial Park" and dedicate it to the brave boys whose names are written on Liberty's tablets of sacrifice. The time is certainly ripe for action of some kind.

FOREST FIRE MENACE

Gov. Preus declares that legislation must be enacted to contribute greater safety to Minnesota's north woods settlers and to minimize the tremendous annual fire loss. He seems to be strongly of the opinion that a mounted constabulary, under state supervision, would help materially in preventing and fighting forest fires. In an address to the State Forestry board the governor asserted that one-tenth the amount spent to call out the National Guard would have prevented this year's fire drainage, and he also called attention to the fact that townships in Northern Minnesota now pay considerable more to prevent forest fires than is paid by the state.

Consolidation of government purchasing, so that departments cannot bid against each other on the market, has been recommended by Director Daves of the Budget Bureau who also submitted a plan for a Purchasing Board and a Liquidation Board, the latter for the disposition of surplus property.

Down at Sauk Rapids a few days ago the village constable failed to doff his hat when the funeral of a soldier killed in action passed through the streets, and was promptly fired by the village council, at the request of a delegation from the American Legion.

According to building trade publications, the building industry is showing very material improvement. While this has been so gradual as not to be noticeable from week to week, taken over a period of months it is plainly discernable.

Some important changes, involving reduction of the army to a basis of 150,000 enlisted men, and redistribution of troops throughout the United States, have been ordered by the general staff with the approval of Secretary Weeks.

The I. W. W., at a district convention held in Fargo last Thursday, proposed a four-hour day for all workers. That is entirely too many working hours—for the I. W. W. members.

Cathedral of Mud and Wood.

Of the world's cathedrals, probably the most curious is that which crowns a hill in Uganda. In appearance it resembles nothing so much as a mountain of grass, although on closer inspection one is able to see that mud and wood have been extensively employed. The structure can accommodate 4,000 persons.

Foreign Customs.

In Sweden a physician cannot sue for his fee, while in Belgium a solicitor is in a similar position. By Chinese law, not only the doctor, but also the priest, the fortune-teller and clairvoyant are without legal remedy. All these debts are, however, looked upon as "debts of honor," and payment is rarely evaded.

Wanted to Know Papa's Status.

Little Freddy at the breakfast table, after having tucked away one piece of cake, turned to his father and said, "May I take another piece of cake, papa?" Father, with years of training to his credit, answered, "You'll have to ask mamma about that, Freddie." Whereupon sonny piped up, "Haven't you anything to say at all, papa?"

RAINS AFFECT TRUNK HIGHWAYS

Minnesota trunk highways show the effects of recent rains, especially on dirt surface sections, according to the weekly road condition bulletin issued by the state highway department.

Gravel surfaced sections continue in good condition generally and maintenance superintendents report that a few days of dry weather will enable the patrolmen to restore normal standards over the system.

Sportsmen traveling by automobile to western and north central districts are advised to go by way of St. Cloud, continuing on through Sauk Center and Glenwood for western points and through Little Falls, and Staples for points further north.

The highway department bulletin on roads in the vicinity of Brainerd states:

AMUSEMENTS

Realistic Scenes in "The Greatest Love"

When Ellis Island disgorges its hundreds of emigrants at the Battery entrance to New York City, there is always a crowd of never-jaded New Yorkers curiously watching the foreign, fantastically garbed people from strange lands. In "The Greatest Love," which is to be shown at the Lyceum theatre today and Tuesday, the audience has an opportunity to see not only this picturesque scene, but are also given generous glimpses of the surroundings of the emigrants on board ship, whiling away the time with song and dance.

These pictures were taken on board one of the large transatlantic liners and the emigrants which the audience see, stolidly watching the camera man take the necessary shots, act so naturally simply because they are not acting at all, with the exception, of course, of the two little players, Bobbie Connelly and Dot Williams.

Vera Gordon, the noted portrayal of "mother" in "Humoresque," has the starring role in "The Greatest Love," which was made under the direction of Henry Kolker. Other prominent players in the cast are Hugh Huntley, Sally Cruise, Donald Hall and Bertram Marburgh.

There is to be a special "Mother's Matinee" Tuesday at 2:15.

Remove Grease Before Lacquering.

It is possible to protect polished metal surfaces by applying several coats of cold lacquer or celluloid varnish. The lacquer should be applied with a brass camel's hair brush, after the metal has been highly polished. There must be no trace of grease on the brass or other metal when it is lacquered.

UNUSUAL EXHIBIT

Reed and Raffia Work, Basketry and Brush Making Exhibited by Miss Adair at County Fair

An unusual exhibit at the Pequot fair was the handiwork of Miss Marie Adair, one of the teachers in the Brainerd schools. While at Fairbault this summer, Miss Adair took a course in a number of Arts and Crafts, including basketry and brush making.

Her exhibition of reed work was very interesting and consisted of a waste paper basket; a large jardiniere holder with wicker handles; a sewing basket with cover, lined with cretonne and fitted with a pin cushion, etc.; a round candy or work basket with a hand-painted cover in a design of wild roses on a background of blue; a flower holder, woven in reeds over glass, and with a tall handle, and a baby's wicker rattle, enameled in white.

There was also a beautiful round cushion of raffia, in tan with a design on each side in yellow blossoms, also of raffia. The pillow was filled with balsam needles.

The brushes shown were scrubbing brushes, both square and oblong, sink brushes, vegetable brushes and brushes for toilet use. These were made of palm fibre, obtained by stripping the outside covers of cocoanuts. Other brushes, such as long handled radiator brushes and counter brushes, had bristles made of hair from the manes of horses, and the handles of these finer brushes were stained and varnished.

In the collection shown were samples of Torchon laces, woven as the Armenian women weave their laces, on a cushion, or padded board. Pins are placed firmly in the cushion, and the shuttles are woven back and forth among the pins, thus forming the design.

Another thing Miss Adair took up was the course in general shoe repairing, and she can now half sole shoes and repair the heels very neatly.

While in Fairbault she took private lessons in weaving from Miss Lindberg, who makes and sells many very beautiful rugs. Miss Lindberg is a cousin of Mr. de Palmar who conducted the symphony orchestra here with "The Birth of a Nation." The rug Miss Adair made under her direction was exhibited at the fair. It is of wool, and is like the Navajo rugs, but is not Indian in design.

All in all, the exhibition was a revelation to people used to machine made things, and those who viewed the collection longed to know the joy that must come from the making of useful and artistic handicraft.

"ROBIN HOOD" DECLARED EXCELLENT

Company and Orchestra is a Wonderful Attraction, Says Manager of Eau Claire, Wis. Theatre

THE PATRONS WERE DELIGHTED

"Robin Hood", Great American Opera, at New Park Theatre This Monday Evening

Eau Claire, Wis., Sept. 19, 1921
Manager New Park Theatre,
Playing "Robin Hood",
Brainerd, Minn.
"Robin Hood" company and orchestra excellent. This is a wonderful attraction. Urge your patrons not to miss it. It is one of the best shows of the season.
Played here to a crowded house last night and all patrons were delighted.
B. J. BOSTWICK,
Manager Grand Theatre

The coming of "Robin Hood" is proving an interesting topic in Brainerd.

"Robin Hood" is a musical entertainment at its best. It does not depend on half-clad "girls" nor salacious dialogues for its hit or its crowd. It attracts real folks and gives them an evening of genuine delight.

The great American novel has not yet made its appearance, unless "Tom Sawyer" fills that niche; the great American play has still to be written. But the great American opera is here and has been here for all these years. We use the word "American" advisedly, although the setting of this piece is England, and its hero the famous Saxon outlaw of Sherwood Forest. For it was written in America by two Americans—their first composition, in fact—was produced in America and sung by American singers. Robin, himself, might be an American with his sturdy love of freedom and justice and fair play—the stuff that sent out English forefathers to Plymouth Rock and Jamestown, and a century later out into the great wild West. David Crockett, Admiral Perry, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt—the same courageous spirit that is the breath and life of Robin Hood inspired them all!

And in its comedy element, where are there such equally famous figures as Friar Tuck and the Sheriff of Nottingham? We must go back to Shakespeare's plays to find their equal in Falstaff and Malvolio. Even Gilbert and Sullivan gave to the world no such lasting and lovable personages.

You older people—if your children do not know "Robin Hood", if they haven't seen the genial Tuck and the strutting Sheriff, and thrilled as Maid Marian fled to Robin's arms in green boughed Sherwood—you are depriving them as much of their happiness as if you deprived them of Tom Sawyer. And you are losing as much, yourself, if you fail to renew your own youth again at Robin Hood's everlasting fountain of springtime and loyalty and good fellowship!

Arrive Sunday

"The Robin Hood" company and orchestra arrived from Virginia, Minn., on Sunday afternoon on the Duluth flier. They enjoyed a good day's rest in Brainerd and will give one of their best performances at the New Park tonight.

Men's Club

The Men's club of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church will meet at the home of Casper Erickson, Bluff and Norwood streets, this evening. All are welcome.

Cheaper Cement

The Universal Portland Cement Co. announces a reduction in its selling prices for Universal Portland cement, effective September 15, of 20 cents per barrel at its Chicago plant and 15 cents per barrel at its Pittsburgh and Duluth plants. This is the second price reduction made by this company this year.

ENJOY OUTING AT "BREEZY POINT"

COVERS LAID FOR SIXTEEN

Glassed-in Pavilion Was Attractively Arranged for the Party of Guests

Thursday evening at 5:30 o'clock the clerks and stenographers of the Minnesota and International railway offices drove in three automobiles to Breezy Point Lodge, where an appetizing chicken dinner had been especially prepared for them.

They arrived just in time to view a beautiful sunset on Lake Pelican from the pier which extends quite a distance into the water.

The dinner was served in the main dining room, which was decorated with autumn flowers. The place cards were miniature aeroplanes in blue and white, which had been furnished by the Woodhead Motor Co. Covers were laid for sixteen. The meal was highly praised, being cooked and served to perfection.

The glassed-in pavilion had been attractively arranged for the guests. A bright fire burned in the stone fireplace, comfortable leather chairs were conveniently placed, while pine boughs and novelties of harvest time gave a decorative effect.

A Brunswick phonograph from the Northern Home Furnishing Co. furnished music for dancing, though Capt. Fawcett has a piano in the pavilion for those who wish to use it.

The drive home by moonlight was most enjoyable, and all expressed themselves delighted with the welcome and entertainment accorded them at Breezy Point Lodge.

This is the sixth outing enjoyed by the employees of the M. & I. offices this season. During the summer two trips were made to Len Smith's cottage near Velvet Beach, and one each to South Long lake, Clark lake and Lum park.

CHINA WILL REFUSE JAP SHANTUNG OFFER

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 19.—The issue of the return by Japan of Shantung to China may soon be forced to a "show-down," it was indicated today.

That development stood out in the Shantung question:

1—China, it is indicated authoritatively, will refuse to accept the recent Japanese proposal for returning Shantung.

2—Japan it was believed may assume an attitude that she is justified in retaining control of Shantung if China rejects the Japanese proposal.

China is believed anxious to bring the question up in the Washington conference on limitation of armament and the Pacific and far east problems. Japan is more anxious that it be kept out.

State Department of Agriculture Representatives Meet With Farmers and Business Men

AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Railroads Cooperating With Department by Placing Cars on Tracks for Demonstrations

An important meeting was held at the Chamber of Commerce beginning at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, attended by farmers and business men, and brought about by the State Department of Agriculture, to consider the remedying of produce losses occasioned in shipments through improper grading and loading. Special attention was paid to the matter of potatoes.

Two meetings were set for today, a number of the State Department of Agriculture party being in attendance at Aitkin and others at Brainerd.

At the Brainerd meeting the speakers were Prof. Budd A. Holt, of the department of agriculture economics of the University of Minnesota; F. J. Baelier, assistant supervisor of the Central District of the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Markets; Hugh J. Hughes, director of markets of the State Department of Agriculture. In attendance was N. D. Harding of the Lake superior division of the Northern Pacific railway company, who saw the party was properly taken care of on their railway itinerary in this section.

The meeting at the Chamber, informal in the morning and formal in the afternoon, was intended as a general conference between the Department of Agriculture and the shippers and business men of this section, with regard to all problems that come up as to grading and loading of farm produce shipments, especially of potatoes, and the proper receiving and accounting for the same.

The sessions laws of 1921 gave the Department of Agriculture broad powers regarding inspection of produce. Formerly the law was almost

UNUSUAL EXHIBIT

Reed and Raffia Work, Basketry and Brush Making Exhibited by Miss Adair at County Fair

An unusual exhibit at the Pequot fair was the handiwork of Miss Marie Adair, one of the teachers in the Brainerd schools. While at Fairbault this summer, Miss Adair took a course in a number of Arts and Crafts, including basketry and brush making.

Her exhibition of reed work was very interesting and consisted of a waste paper basket; a large jardiniere holder with wicker handles; a sewing basket with cover, lined with cretonne and fitted with a pin cushion, etc.; a round candy or work basket with a hand-painted cover in a design of wild roses on a background of blue; a flower holder, woven in reeds over glass, and with a tall handle, and a baby's wicker rattle, enameled in white.

There was also a beautiful round cushion of raffia, in tan with a design on each side in yellow blossoms, also of raffia. The pillow was filled with balsam needles.

The brushes shown were scrubbing brushes, both square and oblong, sink brushes, vegetable brushes and brushes for toilet use. These were made of palm fibre, obtained by stripping the outside covers of coconuts. Other brushes, such as long handled radiator brushes and counter brushes, had bristles made of hair from the manes of horses, and the handles of these finer brushes were stained and varnished.

In the collection shown were samples of Torchon laces, woven as the Armenian women weave their laces, on a cushion, or padded board. Pins are placed firmly in the cushion, and the shuttles are woven back and forth among the pins, thus forming the design.

Another thing Miss Adair took up was the course in general shoe repairing, and she can now half sole shoes and repair the heels very neatly.

While in Fairbault she took private lessons in weaving from Miss Lindberg, who makes and sells many very beautiful rugs. Miss Lindberg is a cousin of Mr. de Palma who conducted the symphony orchestra here with "The Birth of a Nation." The rug Miss Adair made under her direction was exhibited at the fair. It is of wool, and is like the Navajo rugs, but is not Indian in design.

All in all, the exhibition was a revelation to people used to machine-made things, and those who viewed the collection longed to know the joy that must come from the making of useful and artistic handicraft.

"ROBIN HOOD" DECLARED EXCELLENT

THE PATRONS WERE DELIGHTED

"Robin Hood", Great American Opera, at New Park Theatre This Monday Evening

Eau Claire, Wis., Sept. 19, 1921
Manager New Park Theatre,
Playing "Robin Hood",
Brainerd, Minn.
"Robin Hood" company and orchestra excellent. This is a wonderful attraction. Urge your patrons not to miss it. It is one of the best shows of the season.

Played here to a crowded house last night and all patrons were delighted.

B. J. BOSTWICK,
Manager Grand Theatre

The coming of "Robin Hood" is proving an interesting topic in Brainerd.

"Robin Hood" is a musical entertainment at its best. It does not depend on half-clad "girls" nor salacious dialogues for its hit or its crowd. It attracts real folks and gives them an evening of genuine delight.

The great American novel has not yet made its appearance, unless "Tara Sawyer" fills that niche; the great American play has still to be written. But the great American opera is here and has been here for all these years. We use the word "American" advisedly, although the setting of this piece is England, and its hero the famous Saxon outlaw of Sherwood Forest. For it was written in America by two Americans—their first composition, in fact—was produced in America and sung by American singers. Robin, himself, might be an American with his sturdy love of freedom and justice and fair play—the stuff that sent our English forefathers to Plymouth Rock and Jamestown, and a century later out into the great wild West. David Crockett, Admiral Perry, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt—the same courageous spirit that is the breath and life of Robin Hood inspired them all!

And in its comedy element, where are there such equally famous figures as Friar Tuck and the Sheriff of Nottingham? We must go back to Shakespeare's plays to find their equal in Falstaff and Malvolio. Even Gilbert and Sullivan gave to the world no such lasting and lovable personages.

You older people—if your children do not know "Robin Hood", if they haven't seen the genial Tuck and the strutting Sheriff, and thrilled as Maid Marion fled to Robin's arms in green houghed Sherwood—you are depriving them as much of their happiness as if you deprived them of Tom Sawyer. And you are losing as much, yourself, if you fail to renew your own youth again at Robin Hood's everlasting fountain of springtime love and loyalty and good fellowship!

Arrive Sunday

"The Robin Hood" company and orchestra arrived from Virginia, Minn., on Sunday afternoon on the Duluth flier. They enjoyed a good day's rest in Brainerd and will give one of their best performances at the New Park tonight.

ENJOY OUTING AT "BREEZY POINT"

COVERS LAID FOR SIXTEEN

Glassed-in Pavilion Was Attractively Arranged for the Party of Guests

Thursday evening at 5:30 o'clock the clerks and stenographers of the Minnesota and International railway offices drove in three automobiles to Breezy Point Lodge, where an appetizing chicken dinner had been especially prepared for them.

They arrived just in time to view a beautiful sunset on Lake Pelican from the pier which extends quite a distance into the water.

The dinner was served in the main dining room, which was decorated with autumn flowers. The place cards were miniature aeroplanes in blue and white, which had been furnished by the Woodhead Motor Co. Covers were laid for sixteen. The meal was highly praised, being cooked and served to perfection.

The glassed-in pavilion had been attractively arranged for the guests. A bright fire burned in the stone fireplace, comfortable leather chairs were conveniently placed, while pine boughs and novelties of harvest time gave a decorative effect.

A Brunswick phonograph from the Northern Home Furnishing Co. furnished music for dancing, though Capt. Fawcett has a piano in the pavilion for those who wish to use it. The drive home by moonlight was most enjoyable, and all expressed themselves delighted with the welcome and entertainment accorded them at Breezy Point Lodge.

This is the sixth outing enjoyed by the employees of the M. & I. offices this season. During the summer two trips were made to Len Smith's cottage near Velvet Beach, and one each to South Long lake, Clark lake and Lum park.

CHINA WILL REFUSE JAP SHANTUNG OFFER

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 19.—The issue of the return by Japan of Shantung to China may soon be forced to a "show-down," it was indicated today.

That development stood out in the Shantung question:

1—China, it is indicated authoritatively, will refuse to accept the recent Japanese proposal for returning Shantung.

2—Japan it was believed may assume an attitude that she is justified in retaining control of Shantung if China rejects the Japanese proposal. China is believed anxious to bring the question up in the Washington conference on limitation of armament and the Pacific and far east problems. Japan is more anxious that it be kept out.

State Department of Agriculture Representatives Meet With Farmers and Business Men

AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Railroads Cooperating With Department by Placing Cars on Tracks for Demonstrations

An important meeting was held at the Chamber of Commerce beginning at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, attended by farmers and business men, and brought about by the State Department of Agriculture, to consider the remedying of produce losses occasioned in shipments through improper grading and loading. Special attention was paid to the matter of potatoes.

Two meetings were set for today, a number of the State Department of Agriculture party being in attendance at Aitkin and others at Brainerd.

At the Brainerd meeting the speakers were Prof. Budd A. Holt, of the department of agriculture economics of the University of Minnesota; F. J. Baelier, assistant supervisor of the Central District of the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Markets; Hugh J. Hughes, director of markets of the State Department of Agriculture. In attendance was N. D. Harding of the Lake Superior division of the Northern Pacific railway company, who saw the party was properly taken care of on their railway itinerary in this section.

The meeting at the Chamber, informal in the morning and formal in the afternoon, was intended as a general conference between the Department of Agriculture and the shippers and business men of this section, with regard to all problems that come up as to grading and loading of farm produce shipments, especially of potatoes, and the proper receiving and accounting for the same.

The sessions laws of 1921 gave the Department of Agriculture broad powers regarding inspection of produce. Formerly the law was almost

PREPARE AGENDA FOR CONFERENCE

FOREIGN OFFICES OF NATIONS
CONCERNED ARE PLANNING
TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION.

NO PRELIMINARY MEETING

Our State Department is Calling Together Many Experts on Foreign Affairs Who Know the Problems to Be Solved.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington. — Every government which has been invited to participate in the forthcoming conference in Washington on disarmament and Far East problems has given over its demand for anything like a preliminary conference. If there had been insistence on a preliminary conference the United States would not have agreed, and the result would have been that no conference at all would be held.

There are constant streams of communications between the foreign offices of the various governments and the State department of this country. These streams will continue to flow until a short time before the gatherings of the chiefs of the clans which now definitely has been fixed for November 11, Armistice day.

It is pretty generally believed now that a fair understanding of just what subjects will be discussed will be reached before the conference begins. There also is a belief that in a general way the State department will know in advance what the results of the conference are to be. The words which have come from Japan show pretty clearly what the attitude of the Japanese is, and in a fairly specific way one can judge of the attitude of Great Britain and France by what already has been made public concerning their "needs and desires in the case."

Word has come from Great Britain that it has no intention further to urge a preliminary conference on matters pertaining to the Far East. It was known that the various premiers of the British dominions desired particularly to have some definite understanding in advance concerning the Pacific questions which are to be brought before the conference, but apparently the premiers have yielded.

Objections to Preliminary Meet.

It would have been impossible for all of the nations to have sent representatives to the preliminary conference. The United States government was wise enough to know that the unrepresented nations would object strongly to having the other countries arrange a program in advance to which the unrepresented ones might not agree. Furthermore, if representatives of some of the nations were given an opportunity to pass on certain questions in advance, a country like Japan or Italy, not being represented at the preliminary conference, would have some reason to say that the other countries which were represented at it had stacked the cards against it.

The State department now is calling together a large body of experts on foreign affairs. Some of them are coming from the Far East, some of them from Europe, and some of them from South America. They are all men who know the economic problems and some of the diplomatic problems of the countries in which they have been residing, and where in many cases they have been representing Uncle Sam's interests.

More Than Disarmament.

It must be remembered that there are many things which will enter into the discussions which have no direct bearing on the problem of disarmament, but which do have their indirect bearing on it. Economic problems are some of the most difficult ones to solve. Nations have fought many times over trade disputes. In the Far East problem one of the important factors is trade. The "open door" still is in some measure a matter of jealousy and a matter of dispute.

China is going to loom large as a factor in the forthcoming conference in Washington, and when this is said it means that the Shantung problem is not the only one which the discussion of China will present at the bar of the conference.

In the American State department there are bureaus which handle trade matters. Each of these bureaus has its expert in the home office, and its other experts scattered all over the world. Barely are there any changes made in the personnel of these bureaus. Many of the men who are there today have been there for years. They can tell, after a moment's thought, the exact line of every trade route in the world, what commercial point it touches and just what rivalries there are among the nations of the world for the control of, or for a share in the trade of this place or that place.

As with friends, one finds new beauties at every interview, and would stay long in the presence of those choice companions. As with friends, he may dispense with a wide acquaintance. Few and choice. Peanut Not Really a Nut.

The peanut is not a nut; it is a pea. It is a trailing, straggling plant, growing from one to two feet high, with thick, angular, pale green, hairy stems and spreading branches, and it ripens its fruit or its peas or nuts, under ground. It is a strange habit. Small yellow flowers are borne at the joints where the leaves are attached to the stems and as soon as pollination takes place the flower fades and the "peg," as it is commonly called, buries itself in the ground, where the pod develops.

Versatile Vegetable.

It is a blessing nowadays to discover an article of food that will serve several purposes. The cassava plant, referred to in the United States "Commerce Reports," certainly comes under the category. The tubers of this plant are put to many uses. First and foremost it is a vegetable, which is prepared for eating by boiling in plain water. It is also made into a coarse form of meal. Then the dry tuber is grated into another meal, which is made into bread. The juice is saved and boiled down, and on certain condiments being added cassareen is produced, which is the foundation of many sauces. Starch can also be made from the tuber.

Independence Hall.

Independence hall, Philadelphia, the central in what is known as the state house group, was begun in 1732, and was opened and first put to use in September, 1776, when William Allen, mayor and prominent merchant of Philadelphia, gave a dinner to the citizens. It was occupied in October of the same year by the legislature, of which Benjamin Franklin was clerk. The Liberty bell was placed in the state house steeple in June, 1753. Congress convened in Independence hall March 4, 1777, left on September 18, 1777, returned July 2, 1778, and continued to sit there until the close of the revolution.
